

Interview with...

Anna Garais

Head of Inside Sales

Area Sales Manager Export

How did you come to us?

After more than ten years in the networking industry, I was looking for new development opportunities and found them through the recommendation of a former colleague who worked at TTL Network. After the first meeting with the management, everything happened very quickly.

What are your tasks with us?

With my hybrid position of Head of Inside Sales and Area Sales Manager Export, my tasks are very varied as I work both in the office and „on the road“. My main task is to grow together with TTL and take the company to the next level.

What do you like about TTL Network?

From my point of view, the proximity to each other speaks for TTL Network. As a family-run company, the distances are short and I can help shape the future of the company.

What has been your highlight so far during your time at TTL Network?

My first highlight was actually even before I officially started at the company. I was very well prepared with regard to the next entrepreneurial steps and invited to the Christmas party, where I was able to get to know my colleagues in a relaxed atmosphere. Other great highlights included the first joint business trip with Tobias Beuckes to France, Luxembourg and Belgium, as well as attending the Prolight + Sound trade fair in Frankfurt and visiting the ISE in Barcelona.

Please add: The #TTLfamily for me is...

... everything I wish from my job!
